IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

Contact Name (other than owner):

Phone:

The above information is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I accept that dogs stay in Happy Dogs Aigle at their owners' risk and Happy Dogs Aigle cannot be held responsible for any injury or illness arising from their time here.

While away from home, dogs may get sick or injured, lose weight, refuse to eat or pine in other ways. In an emergency or in case of illness, the provision of treatment, regardless of cost, will be provided by the veterinary surgery of Happy Dogs Aigle unless specified otherwise. Vet fees incurred during the dogs stay will be paid by me as owner. In the event that Happy Dogs Aigle cannot reach me or my designated contact person, I accept that they shall take decisions on my behalf and in the best interest of my dog.

It is strongly advised that all dogs are treated for worms, parasites, ticks and fleas a week before visiting. Vaccinations are mandatory for the sake of all dogs staying at Happy Dogs Aigle. Despite the fact that the kennel cough vaccination is obligatory, some dogs; particularly those with underlying medical issues, those that are older, get stressed away from home or those not used to mixing with other dogs, are at risk to develop the illness in boarding facilities.

Happy Dogs Aigle is pleased to accept personal items to help dogs settle but cannot be held responsible for damage to those items (toys, bedding, games etc.)

Happy Dogs Aigle reserves the right to refuse admission to any dog showing signs of ill health, as well as dogs demonstrating worrying, aggressive, destructive or overly noisy behavior.

I, as owner, will supply enough food and medications (if applicable) for my dog's stay and agree to pay the daily rate as outlined above. I understand that if dogs are picked up earlier than planned, the fee for the entire booking period will be charged unless Happy Dogs Aigle can fill the space at short notice.

With such a small number of places available, Happy Dogs Aigle must charge cancellation fees if bookings are cancelled within 7 days of the reservation and the vacancy cannot be refilled.

In the unlikely event of an animal not being collected, Happy Dogs Aigle may notify the relevant authorities of the animal concerned after giving 14 days' notice to the owner, or his representative at their last known address.

In case of legal dispute, the judicial forum will be Aigle.
